Faegre Drinker Bolsters Finance & Restructuring Team With Partner Deanna Reitman in Dallas

Dallas — Mar. 18, 2024 — Faegre Drinker announced today that Deanna Reitman has joined the firm as a partner in the finance & restructuring practice in Dallas. Reitman joins from a national law firm.

Reitman provides clients with legal, regulatory and business advice on commodities. She has more than 25 years' experience in commodity markets and more than 18 years of senior management experience, with a particular focus on energy, metals, agriculture, carbon and other sustainable commodities.

"Deanna brings impressive experience working in commodity markets, transactional finance and in-house, offering significant opportunities for our team to expand its work for clients," said partner and finance & restructuring practice group leader Mike Pompeo. "Her valuable insight into transaction structuring, as well as regulatory and commercial advice in the commodities space, will serve Faegre Drinker's clients well."

Reitman draws upon her experience as in-house counsel for commodity marketing and trading firms to advise on the structuring of transactions, developing carbon and sustainable asset platforms/exchanges, and providing business-forward regulatory and commercial advice to clients. She is a skilled communicator and team manager with a record of success in achieving complicated objectives for clients.

"Deanna's enthusiasm for client service is clear, and we are thrilled for her to join the firm in Texas," said partner and Dallas office leader Dawn McCord. "She will be an integral team member dedicated to collaborating and developing strong client relationships in the local community and beyond."

Reitman earned her B.A. from New York University, J.D. from St. John's University School of Law and MBA from Fordham University.

The firm's Dallas office is made up of more than 20 attorneys across industries that help clients faced with challenging commercial litigation, class actions, complex insurance, construction litigation, product liability matters, multidistrict litigation and more. Additionally, the office has strong health care industry capabilities and provides strategic business-oriented legal advice in connection with health care-related transactions and regulatory compliance counseling. In April 2024, the firm will move its location to the KPMG Plaza at Halls Art, located in the Dallas Art District.

Faegre Drinker's finance and restructuring practice advises clients across diverse industries on matters from financial transactions to corporate debt restructurings, as well as bankruptcy and litigation matters.
